

Artist profile

JILL BARTON

Jill has had a love of painting especially watercolour since a young child when she was encouraged by her Mother who was herself an accomplished artist. Her school years were also dominated by art, often at the expense of other subjects. She has had tutelage over the years from Freya Dade, Charles Bush, and Annette Meikle and for several years Colin Johnson in P.A.S.

She also has a very strong interest in gardening; hence often flowers and her garden are popular subjects to paint. With her husband Noel, Jill has visited overseas three times and fallen in love with French and Italian villages as a further challenge to paint in watercolour.

Over the years many paintings have been sold to friends and family and also on commission, as well as in local galleries.
