KAY HOPWOOD

Kay Hopwood lives and works on the Mornington Peninsula.

Since 1963 Kay has studied art and exhibited both in Australia and in Greece

1963	Diploma of Art (Advertising) Swinburne, Melbourne
1972	Julian Aston School of Art, Sydney
1975	Diploma of Art and Design (Painting) Prahran College, Melbourne
1975	Group exhibition, George Paton Gallery, Melbourne
1975	Artists Choice Exhibition. Chosen by Sandra Leveson as her Artists Choice to exhibit
1977	Group exhibition, Universal Workshop, Melbourne
1977	Group exhibition, Warehouse Galleries, Melbourne
1978 to 1986	Community Artist, Melbourne City Council
1986	Artist in Residence, Melbourne City, Teaching, arts projects, murals
1980	Toorak Teachers College, Post Graduate
1980	Joint exhibition, Profile Gallery, Melbourne
1980	Teaching at own studio in Hartwell, Melbourne
1981	Post Graduate (Painting), Philip Institute, Melbourne
1985	Solo exhibition, Kensington, Melbourne
1990	Group exhibition, Fringe Festival, Adelaide Festival of Arts, Sth. Australia
1994	Solo exhibition, Blue Expressions Gallery, Adelaide
1994	Galleries study – U.S.A., Mexico, France
1998 to 2000	Galleries study – Greece, Italy, U.K.
1999	Solo exhibition, Sappho's Gallery Space, Greece
1999	Solo exhibition, Sui Generis Gallery, Melbourne
2002 to 2004	Group exhibitions on the Mornington Peninsula
2002 to 2007	Life Drawing at Peninsula Arts Society and McClelland Guild of Artists
2004	Teaching portraiture at Mt.Eliza, Langwarrin, Frankston
2005	Solo Exhibition Cube 37, Frankston Arts Centre
2006/07	Teaching art at McClelland Guild of Artists
2007	Exhibiting at McGees Gallery, Mornington
2007	Second Prize, Little Archies, Oakhill Gallery, Mornington
2007	First prize, Drawing the Line Exhibition, Richard Riordan Memorial Prize
2008	Teaching art at McClelland Guild of Artists
2008	Group Exhibition with Mornington Drawing Group, The Highway Gallery
2009	Second Prize, Little Archies, Oakhill Gallery, Mornington