

ARTIST PROFILE FOR SHEILA STONE.

Sheila Stone was born in Lancashire, England and educated at a Convent boarding School in North Wales, where she was first introduced to Art.

Emigrating to Australia in the late 1960's she didn't pick up her brushes again until 1980, when she joined the Dandenong Library Art Club and was tutored by Gunther Kalbitzer and fell in love with watercolour painting which is still her passion today.

Among her many tutors who have influenced her are:

Jacqueline Long—Pastel
Carmen Powell—Drawing
Andrew Gemmel—Watercolour
Brian Armstrong—Pastel

Sheila also studied

Life Drawing at Dandenong Tech School
Oil Painting and Charcoal at Doveton Tech School

Sheila has been exhibiting and selling throughout Victoria since the 1980's and has paintings hanging in America and Europe.

Now a member of the Peninsula Arts Society, she paints landscapes, seascapes, flowers, animals and birds.
